Research on the internet then answer the following questions..

1. How long does Ramadan last for?
2. What is it called when Muslims do not drink and eat in the hours of daylight?
3. What do Muslims do or receive at the end of Ramadan?
4. Where do Muslims mainly go to pray?

Ramadan is an important event for Muslim people. It takes place in the ninth month of the Islamic calendar. This calendar is based on the moon.

Ramadan begins the morning after people see the crescent moon. It can last for 29 or 30 days. This is about one month.
